

Country Garden

Hummingbird Mint -Agastache

This is a very nice yellow-flowering form of the American native plant known as the "Jewel of the Sierra Madre," The flowers, appearing in midsummer, are magnets for hummingbirds feeding on the abundant nectar produced by the flowers. The leaves are quite minty and can be used to make tea. Ht. 30-45cm/18-24".

